

“HENFEATHER”

Well, I just mean Henfeather that hovers down over the eggs and hatches them out. The old “Henfeather Incubator” is as near the old hen as possible without having another hen. It hatches all the eggs and they all have the same temperature.

I have all sizes from 250 to 500 capacity. Come in and see them.

This will announce the fact that I have the Celebrated

MOLINE IMPLEMENTS.

A fine line of Pipe and Fittings for deep and shallow wells,
The reliable Leader and Star Windmills,
The Peter Schuttler Wagons,
The Henny Buggies,

And, well, I have what you want in the Hardware line. In fact I haven't anything else but Hardware. Come and get the best for the least money.

L. E. Taylor has gotten his new business on Main street under way and is doing a very nice business. All sorts of racket goods and electric supplies comprise the stock.

Williams, the market and groceryman, is building a two story business house on the site of his former business, destroyed by the January fire. The building is 25x60 feet, and in every way modern. Paul Meeting drew up the plans for the building.

Editor W. C. Hawkins of Montoya, was a business visitor Monday. Hawkins is a good booster for his town and tells his subscribers that Tucumcari is coming to the front, having caught the spirit from Montoya. Good!
Hawkins we will get into the game and do the best we can.

J. A. Street has received his new sprinkler this week. The same will be put in operation before long

L. E. Taylor's new store of electrical and racket goods is now displaying a fine line of the same.

Tafoya & Lawson have put in a shoe shine outfit and are shining up their customer's shoes complimentary. Doing quite a nice business in that line.
